Experienced International Debt Recovery

Commercial Credit Management in North and South America

We are here.

Anywhere across the globe.
Resolving complex credit challenges.
In every industry.

Local knowledge. Global reach. Consistent results.

As a leading strategic partner in B2B debt collection across the Americas, we help businesses improve cash flow, reduce debtor days and recover overdue accounts while preserving valuable customer relationships across diverse markets and jurisdictions.

Our human but commercially driven approach combines local market knowledge with consistent regional oversight, prioritising professional engagement, relationship management and sustainable recovery outcomes that support long-term business success.

Real Human Support with 24/7 Portal Access.

Our experienced recovery specialists provide direct support and regular updates, backed by a secure online portal with real time case tracking and reporting.

Faster Payments. Greater Transparency.

Recovered funds are typically paid directly into your nominated bank account, helping you receive payment faster while maintaining complete transparency throughout the recovery process.

Results Driven Recovery Partnership.

Operating on a genuine No Recovery, No Fee basis, GCR remains fully focused on delivering successful, commercially minded recovery outcomes for your business.

Experienced International Team

GCR is led by an experienced UK and Middle East based team with extensive knowledge of debt recovery across a wide range of sectors, as well as a trusted partner agency in New York that has been operating for 90+ years.

Our specialists work closely with clients to deliver practical solutions, clear communication and consistent results.

Proactive Recovery

We act quickly to engage with debtors and progress cases efficiently. Our responsive approach helps maximise recoveries while maintaining professionalism and protecting client relationships.

Professional. Transparent. Effective.

Clients benefit from a recovery service built on accountability, compliance and expertise. Combining industry knowledge with a client-focused approach, GCR delivers the standards and results businesses expect from a trusted UK recovery partner.

Experienced Support. Complete Transparency.

Our experienced recovery specialists and regional partner network provide professional support throughout every stage of the process.

With 24/7 portal access, you can track progress, view updates, and manage cases with complete transparency.

The Advantage of Professional Debt Recovery

Partnering with GCR

At GCR, we work as an extension of your business, taking the time to understand your objectives, customers and processes. Our experienced team combines proven B2B recovery expertise with professional representation and transparent communication, ensuring every case is managed with care, consistency and focus.

Managing Recoveries Without Specialist Support

Our support extends from initial recovery through to legal action where required. With trusted attorneys available across every state in North America and local attorneys throughout South America and LATAM, we provide the local expertise needed to navigate different markets effectively.

Contingent fee legal action is also available across North and South America, providing a seamless and commercially focused route to escalation when required.

The commitment and expertise demonstrated by the GCR team have been truly impressive. They've shown efficiency, effectiveness and deep knowledge of the recovery process, successfully closing accounts we initially thought would be extremely challenging.

The results speak volumes about GCR's service delivery and commitment.

I genuinely believe partnering with GCR was a wise decision for FactSet.

Looking forward to continued success and future collaboration.

FACTSET

Protect Your Cash Flow and Brand Reputation in the USA and Globally

Trusted by businesses across the Americas, we have built a reputation for delivering effective B2B debt recovery solutions throughout the region and across international markets.

Our extensive regional experience, combined with a global recovery network, enables us to navigate diverse legal, cultural and commercial environments while maintaining the highest professional standards.

We recognise that preserving valuable business relationships is often just as important as recovering the debt itself. Today's debtor may become tomorrow's customer, supplier or strategic partner, which is why our approach balances firm commercial action with professionalism, respect and long-term relationship management.

Recover Debt Professionally.
Preserve Relationships.
Protect Your Brand.

Solutions for Every Business Structure

Large Portfolios

Supporting businesses with high account volumes through scalable recovery programmes, dedicated account management and detailed performance reporting.

SME Support

Providing smaller businesses with access to international recovery expertise, helping improve cash flow without increasing internal resource requirements.

Shared Service Centres

Acting as an extension of your credit control function, delivering consistent recovery processes across multiple territories, currencies and customer bases.

Over 40 Years of Commercial Recovery Experience

For more than 40 years, the leaders at Global Credit Recoveries have helped businesses to recover outstanding debts, supporting clients across the US, UK, Europe, Middle East and other international markets.

Our success is built on a combination of proven recovery expertise, commercial understanding and a global network of trusted recovery partners. We recognise that effective debt recovery is about more than collecting what is owed, it is about protecting business relationships, reputation and future opportunities.

By combining professional communication with a results-driven approach, we help improve cash flow while delivering a transparent and personal service that puts our clients first.
